ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Any endeavour, such as completing this written transmission, can only be accomplished when we are guided by the right spirit. We are grateful to our Ruby Ray Lineage and the Ascended Masters, Elohim, Archangels and Angels that serve the Brotherhood-Sisterhood of the Light for inspiring us to reveal more of the I AM Teachings so that we can all make progress on our Path of Liberation-Enlightenment-Ascension. May these words turn into constructive works!

We are also eternally grateful to Guru Ma and Lanello for being the missing link in hierarchy that was finally revealed to us exactly when we needed to receive an increment of Light to go through our higher initiations. Even if we did not have the opportunity to meet them on the physical plane, we could still find the thread to our lineage and confirm that the Ascended Realm is real and open to co-create with us! They are keeping the door between realities (densities of consciousness) open until we are all victorious and permanently join the bands of the Light!

We would love to guide you through the outer, inner and secret Ruby Ray initiations, so that you can master the path of accelerated love and become one of the bodhisattvas/divine servers that can realize Love-Truth to benefit all sentient life. This is the way of uncompromising love! Do you desire to serve Life with integrity and help restore the original consciousness to empty all the suffering in the world? Does your heart include All? If so, we invite you to immerse in our Enlightened Education Teachings and get ready to celebrate the Victory of Love-Truth!

INTRODUCTION

The Harvesting Cycle

The Age of Aquarius is a period of harvesting, of reconciliation with Source and sincere repentance for all the times that you have turned away from the Path. Mature souls are now being called to reunite with their God Presence to fulfill their purpose-mission and reveal the mysteries of the science of enlightenment-ascension! If you are one of the chelas who is ready to return to the I AM, you will need to empty your human baggage and activate your divine consciousness. Your awakened heart, your altruistic spirit, will help you navigate multiple densities of consciousness until you remove all the obscurations of the mind and realize your luminous essence. Remember that you are on a path of multidimensional (multi-layered) healing.

To fulfill your highest vision you require the Three Jewels -the Guru, the Divine Curriculum, and the Community of Devotees- since they represent the technology that you need to internalize your bodhisattva vow. Be willing to deepen your journey of self-discovery, even if it seems impossible to realize your true nature. As you overcome the egoic inertia, you will start attracting the right allies and resources. Move forward and take incremental steps towards Enlightenment-Ascension!

Many people associate the Golden Age with debauchery, the idea that everything is valid, and that freedom means indulging in any kind of activity because 'everything is permitted'. However, Saint Germain's teachings on sovereignty require that we learn to surrender to the divine will. Freedom is not rebellion, but applied wisdom!

The transmissions contained in this eBook are mainly meant to activate the community sphere of consciousness. We will share the tools and insights that will encourage you to recognize the power of the practitioners who get together to create a unified forcefield of light to catalyze the collective elevation!

The Aquarian Call represents the magnetic movement towards the heart of the Guru. This call is an opportunity to re-enter the mystery school that you might have left during the times of Atlantis and Lemuria. Only the authentic Guru and the true chelas can open the gate of the mystery school. Lord Maitreya, the Buddha of this Golden Age, is reminding you that it is time to go back home and complete your initiations in the Garden of Eden. You are called to do this so that you balance your karma, train yourself to benefit all sentient beings and eventually ascend and continue serving the One from the higher octaves. Are you ready to receive the teachings that can lead you beyond the mindset of 'relative good and relative evil'? Do you desire to accomplish your divine mission?

Welcome to our Oasis of Love-Truth!

A mystery school is a container that favours enlightenment. Many have joined communities looking for a rescuer and to escape their worldly challenges. However, the sangha is the sacred vessel that allows for the Aquarian Reunion. Building community is not an invitation for victims to group together and expect others to magically solve their ego-created problems. It is a sovereign mandala that promotes self-transcendence.

A mystery school is not a place, but a state of consciousness that brings you back to the circle of the Ascended Masters so that you can make progress on your path. How can you joyfully go through the alchemical process that will free your life force energy and inspire you to manifest constructive patterns?

Your path of initiation starts when you are willing to face your individual-collective karma. Because you are a chela and you are aware of the use of the spoken word and the energetics of divine alchemy, your karma (misuse of God's energy) will descend in the Age of Aquarius. This is the meaning of judgment. It is an expression of God's justice and not a desire to release currents of anger, punishment or revenge to make you pay for the distorted use of your free will. It is the opportunity to take full responsibility for your creation and re-qualify all your energy by respecting God's Plan. You are accountable for the use of God's gifts. All that you receive from Source should be consecrated to the expansion of the light. You need to return to Alpha and Omega what you have been granted in the same (or better) conditions than you have received them!

When you attract your portion of individual and planetary karma you will tend to feel pain. It can be created by your unconscious choices, your resistance to accept your Life Plan, or simply because you are processing planetary frequencies. Also, pain reminds you that you have not surrendered enough to empty or disencumber yourself from the entanglements of the ego. The I AM Presence reminds you that "partial application is naught." Relative transformation (self-justifications and self-abandonment) will only produce superficial, insubstantial changes. Your full commitment is required!

A good way to surrender is to kneel so that you engage your physical body and all your bodies in the sacred practice of letting go of human pride and control to trust the divine way. Inner reverence is more important than external postures. Ask yourself and the Ascended Masters to reveal to you the acceptable offering, i.e., what needs to shift in you for your soul conversion to occur. Every initiation will draw you nearer to your center (blueprint) because the light serves your true self. It guides you back to your origin-essence-purpose-destiny-mission. The light purifies; it gives you clarity and inner understanding. It activates your pure vision so that you no longer feel lost.

Every initiation involves an integral detox and the fulfillment of three stages: preparation, activation, and integration, until you reach full acceptance at the level of your being. As you move forward on your spiritual path you will only be invited to let go of what is delaying your progress! Anchor in your Truth to dissolve the illusion. Take refuge in the Light! Often, students of the Ascended Masters look for relief rather than authentic liberation. Relief is a form of self-abandonment -a way of compromising by minimizing the value of your vow. The Ascended Host will teach you how to concentrate your energy to pass your tests and to be confident as you go through the intensity of the sacred fire that consumes all unlike itself. Fear and doubt obscure your nature. You need a constant intensification of Love, Wisdom, and Power, the incremental amplification of the Holy Trinity represented by the Threefold Flame in the secret chamber of your heart, to dissolve those energy veils (evil).

You will need to neutralize all forms of hostility (the ways in which the individual and collective victim projects and denies the light and wastes time and precious opportunities).

To be victorious, it is key to let go of all your addictions and attachments. Otherwise you will pay the price of time -stepping into longer cycles and using more resources to overcome the spiral of negativity, rebellion, defeat and failure created by the impostor.

All these are good reasons to decide to walk the Path of the Ascended Masters. Your association with the Brotherhood-Sisterhood of the Light will help you detach from the astral plane so that you can align with Love-Truth. It will help you reduce waste so that you optimize your reality by letting go of excess and what is unnecessary: overconsumption, entertainment and distractions.

Having the right motivation is key! Are you walking your spiritual path to obtain personal gain or to get ready to heal to serve (to show that it is possible to turn suffering into love)? You might discover that most leaders are focused on content development and starting their own spiritual businesses, but do not truly desire to convert and become divine servers. Sharing random practices is not the same as serving your mission. Remember that a path of initiation is meant to guide Humanity as everyOne receives the divine teachings that they need to expand their consciousness and wake up from the collective dream. Your service is not meant to solve '3-D issues' but to lead everyOne to the I AM. You are not here to fix minor or superficial dilemmas. Your service should not be transactional or impermanent. Also, it should be based on healthy requirements (boundaries) that allow for co-creation but not on restrictive conditions. Aquarian services require an I AM Platform so that the I AM RACE Communities can be birthed. The emphasis is not so much on bureaucracy, rigid organizations, and fixed structures, but on inner development and constant expansion.

This Golden Age invites you to create from the emptiness of your being. It is a time dedicated to the Mother. Do you express your devotion to her medicine and wisdom? Are you willing to resurrect the divine aspect that has been suppressed by most world religions and human structures?

You are walking a Path of Enlightenment and Ascension, which will encourage you to realize Love-Truth. As you celebrate the second coming you will reveal your service-mission, guide all the willing hearts to find their essence and purpose, and let go of the need for recreation and the instant/constant gratification of the senses.

Remember that what you choose to read is an indication of your state of consciousness (inner focus)! Keep focused on the I AM Teachings -and not on spiritual fiction or deceptive channelings! It is easier to be entertained, even in spiritual events, than to be present and access the cosmic silence to open inner portals of consciousness. It is also easier to visit Temples than to become One. You will need to train yourself to see with your Inner Eye because, ultimately, you will never find something outside that you can rely on. The Kingdom-Queendom is only visible through your Christ Consciousness. Initially, there won't be external evidence of your 5-D reality. Innocence and inner purification will open your body and consciousness so that you can perceive and trust that frequency. Remember that external reality is a mirror so there's nothing to be activating/clearing out there. Always go to the cause of creation – YOU!

You need the connection with the Ascended Masters (until you open your crown chakra and have a direct connection with Alpha and Omega) to manifest this Golden Age through your Christ Consciousness.

Also, you will need to neutralize the dweller-on-the-threshold that keeps you trapped in a slavery matrix. The threshold refers to '' the threshold of initiation'', i.e., a higher step in the ascension spiral. The impostor will try to limit you by creating a matrix of fear, tension, opposition and impossibility. It is up to you to break free and to dissolve its smokescreen!

The Ascended Masters will help you rise and walk so that you balance your four lower bodies and become a sovereign being, One that can reign over the ego and its selfish desires. The Brotherhood-Sisterhood will train you to become a selfless server so that you can help manifest a permanent Golden Age and make your Ascension in the Light! To precipitate your divine vision you will need the training and sponsorship of Cosmic Beings. Global Service requires a clear vision of transformation, the Light Technology to bring it forth, a mission, a team (volunteers and divine chelas/servers) and the willingness and readiness to leave your legacy of light. It all starts with the right motivation and a divine purpose to be the change you want to see in the world. This is the principle of conversion through the Christ Consciousness.

Most people serve to live. We invite you to live to serve!

- What is your calling and role in the manifestation of the 7th Golden Age?
- Which are your Three Jewels?
- What is your service vow?

Reflect on your Life Plan and allow your I AM Presence to guide you as you externalize your creative blueprint. Your essence is immortal, but your time on Earth is limited! Find your purpose and fulfill your reason for being!

MASTER YOUR DESTINY

Beloved chela, why do you think it is so crucial to become an initiate? Unless you receive your initiation to follow the Great Way -The Path of the 12 Rays- you won't be introduced to the mysteries of the Cosmic Law. As you take refuge in your Three Jewels, you will be able to neutralize the ancestral strategies that attempt to convince you that you are a victim and that you are disconnected from Source. When you open your heart to the Brotherhood-Sisterhood of the Light, you no longer feel lost or forsaken. The Ascended Masters will remind you of the steps to freedom as you take refuge in the cosmic heart!

If you are reading this transmission, you are definitely a pioneer. You are here to make a difference and help usher in a permanent Golden Age! You will not have an external compass or roadmap. You will need to rely on your I AM guidance and surrender to its wisdom. Learning to trust self-revelations is key to develop more awareness and be internally focused. Embrace your original wisdom. As you take a stand for Truth, you will witness the 'dividing of the ways', i.e., the natural reorganization that happens when you choose love while you may witness that other pilgrims are still attached to fear.

Dealing with these abrupt changes in relationships (and your own destiny) might create confusion and a sense of lack of control but they are actually training you to detach and let go of the need to manipulate certain outcomes. It teaches you the value of Real Love and demonstrates the application of the Law of Correspondence, the perfect balance between cause and effect.

As you stop compromising and dare to stop complying with obligations, you can access your true desires and accelerate your spiritual growth. Accepting everyOne's soul journey (and soul timing) can help you heal your fear of change and resistance to the acceleration of love. Accept to surrender! Have you already discovered that nothing works when you try to do things 'your way'? Dare to renovate your relationships -starting with yourself- and trust that you can attract the Ones that share your same purpose-mission. Co-creation is not based on personal preferences, but on soul compatibility.

It might be a moment of farewell and detachment as we are all parting from the old ways. When something has served its purpose, acknowledge it and move forward. Nothing is lost, everything is being upgraded so that it is aligned with the aquarian consciousness. We are in a victorious age that reminds us that the Path of Enlightenment can be joyful and that the most challenging initiations have already passed. Let's embrace an auspicious present-future and serve the One in a prosperous way!

Life has been preparing you to accept God's Plan for you. Can you have faith in your sovereign destiny? If ancestral energy is weighing you down, take dominion! The greatest lesson that you can learn now is that only what you love will prosper. Make sure that you prioritize your true desire and resurrect your passion for the light. Don't be afraid to be completely emptied since your God Self is wanting to upgrade your consciousness to precipitate from the higher realms.

Learn to welcome unexpected changes, sudden timeline shifts. All that is not aligned with your purpose-mission will be removed from your reality so that you can thrive.

This is due to a deep purification process that is wiping out karmic relationships, contracts, and projects -whatever is expressing lack of purpose. It is the evidence of the culmination of a cycle of suffering! As you keep on doing your inner alchemy, the karmic mirrors will disappear, and you will start attracting higher reflections of light -mirrors of integrity. If you are uncertain about what to create or what your next sovereign step is, don't fill that space with old things. Don't allow anxiety, uncertainty, or boredom distract or discourage you. Learn to be in the emptiness from which everything emerges!

Ego-clinging is the main reason for suffering. You might be trying to fulfill your calling by looking for external providers, believing that opportunities are out there. However, you will need to open inner portals to access your desired reality. What strengthens your connection with Source? What are you ready to precipitate? If you truly surrender to your vision, you will always be guided and supported. The Way will be revealed. Be willing to release the accumulation of frustration for not having achieved liberation yet.

Learning about Divine Alchemy is key because your energetic momentum -the accumulation of records and habits- creates a specific tendency or timeline. You need to re-qualify your energy and re-direct it to choose a new course of action. It is time for collective resurrection. You can resolve your karmic bonds and raise your frequency to manifest christic alliances, i.e., relationships that have a common purpose, follow the same path, and prioritize a heart-based connection because they have balanced their Threefold Flame.

These are Higher Self creations that have a foundation of trust and surrender and have chosen to relinquish their egoic agendas. There has to be no intellectual or spiritual pride because that will block sincere and fruitful exchanges.

Sooner or later, abusive relationships -the ones that abuse life force energy- will leave you with a bitter feeling. It has to be so because they are not based on The 3 R's: respect, recognition and reciprocity. They are connected through the lower bodies and don't allow for soul liberation. They keep you trapped in the illusion of lack (poverty mindset). Unless everyOne is willing to transmute their karma/trauma and overcome their ancestral programming, there will be friction and difficulty to walk the same path.

When you ignore God's Plan, you cannot be held accountable for resisting it or not collaborating with it. However, you are accountable for the use of divine energy and for every choice and experience that you welcome into your consciousness. Unconsciousness does not imply that you can get away with egoic behavior, but that your free will is respected until you mature and understand the Universal Laws and the dynamics of enlightened creation.

You won't be able to explain your new reality, you will have to manifest it and invite others to choose it if they also desire it. Trust your destiny, which is invisible to the non-initiate. If in doubt, always move forward, never backwards. Honor your path of chelaship and integrate the Christ-Buddha Codes that will guide you back to your spiritual home. Know that miracles (graceful, divine intercession) exist!

- Are you willing to become your own Alchemist?
- Are you ready to remove your 9 Obstacles to Freedom?
- What might hold you back? What can inspire you to break through?

On a soul level, you know that when you choose to expand your consciousness and let go of limiting dynamics -and the relationships that mirrored your old version- there is no turning back! You need to define what it is that you desire to make permanent in your reality and have no regrets about your evolutionary choices! Let's start by becoming aware of the way in which the individual-collective victim tries to control you to make you give up on your sovereign rights. It will…

- flatter you – disguise an abusive relationship by making you feel special so that you stay, give in, and comply with the victim's agenda.
- tempt you – it will say and offer what it thinks can make you compromise.
- attack you – project its pain/resentment unto you to make you feel guilty.
- manipulate you - withdraw its financial and emotional support /resources.
- humiliate you - injure your reputation (defamation).
- debilitate you - monopolize relationships and set everyone against you.
- curse you – hope that you are not victorious and keep on suffering.
- ignore you - treat you with indifference so that you don't feel worthy of love and attention.
- trick you – sporadically show interest in your life and pretend everything is fine.

If you overcome these challenges, you will neutralize the opposing force and reach completion -peaceful resolution. Liberation requires definition and movement. Either people evolve or they exit your reality when they cannot honor/mirror your growth. Step into freedom, internalize/externalize Love-Truth, and become incorruptible!

Ready to move onto a new cycle of creative experiences?

- The poison of flattery can turn into self-worth.
- The poison of temptation can turn into wise dominion.
- The poison of attack can turn into inner strength.
- The poison of manipulation can turn into autonomy.
- The poison of humiliation can turn into self-confidence.
- The poison of weakness can turn into resourcefulness.
- The poison of curses can turn into blessings.
- The poison of indifference can turn into wholeness.
- The poison of deception can turn into discernment.

You need to know that your karma is not unbereable (crushing) and the ego is not indestructible. You will just carry your cross until you can balance your karma, remove all your inner blockages, and embody infinite wisdom and compassion to pierce through the illusion of suffering. "And unless those days had been shortened, no flesh would have been saved; but because of the elect, those days will be shortened." (Matthew 24:22)

You will eventually activate your Tree of Life and bear fruit. Enlightenment is both your calling and legacy, so it needs to become your priority!

What is the accumulation of energy (virtues) required? Focus on what you cannot delegate to find the key. What cannot be done by others? What is the foundation for self-transcendence? Your spiritual and physical disciplines and your service offering -your devotional offerings! All else can become a distraction. How much time are you dedicating to your Presence?

Focusing on Enlightenment involves both a blessing and a price, the price of excellence. Not perfectionism, but appreciation for your potential. Remember Master Jesus's words: "For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the more." (Luke 12:48) You are accountable for your spiritual responsibilities. Every blessing (increment of light) that that has been bestowed upon you needs to be acknowledged and reinvested on a constructive endeavor.

Most people think that enlightenment will make them feel special, important, or will make them rich. However, it will reveal your nature, which needs no specific outcome or definition. You will not become 'someone better', you will become nothing and everything, a humble instrument of God!

If you are one of the chosen chelas that can support the global I AM Mission that Saint Germain -and his Brothers and Sisters of the Light- is guiding from the Ascended Realm, it means that you have the level of attainment that is required to turn the Word into Works. Be a Keeper of the Flame of Life!

Lead by example!

FOLLOW THE PATH OF SACRED PARTNERSHIP

''Thou shalt have no other gods before me'' (Exodus 20:3-5, KJV)

What is the value of the spiritual path? You might have already tried avoiding it and applying a few tools and practices on your own so that you could heal. You may also have noticed that disciplines are just an aspect of the science of self-transcendence. Perfect technique does not necessarily lead to liberation. Doing random spiritual work is not beneficial. We all need guidance! We need the Three Jewels to thrive!

Initiation is key because it helps you dissolve a portion of your karma and receive an increment of light so that you stop looping (being stuck on the same life lessons). We are all a link in the Hierarchy of Light. Only Hierarchy, all the ascended and unascended masters in service to the One, can give you a blessing to move forward. Hierarchy gives you keys to open new doors of awareness. Remember that unless you are tied to the heart of the masters, within the circle of Oneness, karma will be your teacher!

EveryOne deserves initiation! The spiritual path is not just for highly devoted chelas. Householders and people from all walks of life can enter the path and receive the teachings that will allow them to realize their divine nature. Anyone can be initiated as long as they are willing to find their Inner Truth.

Willingness eventually turns into commitment. The I AM invites you to turn a spiritual hobby into your devotional path so that you can unify with the Presence. Respect the first commandment: put God first and let go of idolatry!

Ready to accept your destiny? Are you afraid of letting go of control and trusting what lies ahead? Meditate on the perfection of your path. No one can disappoint you and you can never make a mistake. When the student is ready, the Three Jewels appear. All life experiences are meant to prepare you for your purpose-mission and most of them are opportunities to discern what is authentic and what is not. You are not a victim of your circumstances. You always attract the perfect mirrors to uncover what remains fragmented and needs inner resolution.

To remember your Life Plan and welcome it, you need to empty your past records of resentment, victimhood and suffering. Otherwise, you won't be able to integrate your highest vision. Build a strong foundation for your Christ Consciousness and stop pushing the wrong desires. When something is not flowing, you might need to reconnect with the divine way. Don't take heaven by storm! Be a sovereign co-creator! It is your responsibility to attract the opportunities that you desire to experience.

Become magnetic! Stop waiting for people's permission or approval. Blaze your own trail! Also, make a clear distinction between the pioneer and the martyr. Are you paving the way forward in a joyful way or are you fighting against the conventional paradigm, at the cost of your life force energy? Pressure and effort are egoic signs.

Allow your I AM Presence to reveal the Aquarian Vision and trust your creative potential. Receiving a vision does not mean that you will be able to manifest it right away. It will catalyze a process of inner re-alignment and maturation that will eventually allow you to change tracks.

Remember whether you are meant to walk a solitary path (individualistic approach) or enter the Path of Sacred Partnership, since they involve different directions and commitments. The latter requires that there are 'two in the light' who keep the flame of life and can overcome distractions and the attachment to suffering (victim mindset). Two are enough to create a ripple effect of enlightenment!

Following the Path of Sacred Partnership (Divine Reverence) also requires the willingness to develop trust and surrender to open your heart to your Guru and/or the partner and community that you choose to walk the path with. Unless you accept your Three Jewels and surrender to the alchemy of sacred partnership, you won't be liberated because you will be outside the circle of the Masters -the figure-eight flow that protects the buddhas and bodhisattvas and gives you the right increment of light to make progress!

You are walking a path based on the principles of sacrifice, surrender, service and selflessness ... and the cultivation of self-worth. You cannot decide to keep your old ways and intend to be victorious. Why is it important to surrender? Because it is the way in which you dissolve the spirals of pride and rebellion that the ego has created so that you can resurrect the inner aspects that have been suppressed or denied. You need to integrate all your mirrors since they are a gateway to enlightenment!

Remember that the path of sacred partnership involves taking on the karma of the one that you are partnering with. The Guru takes the karma of the chela and quickens the balancing of those misqualified patterns by sharing his or her attainment with the student. Between partners, the same holds true. This is the reason why these bonds can only be preserved if there is pure generosity.

Transmutation is a form of accelerated purification through humility. What you don't share with your Guru and partner, you won't share with your Community and Humanity because they are the seeds of service. They prepare you to share your light with others in a sovereign way. They are your laboratory and testing ground. Remember that two egos can't share a vision-mission, they can only fight and amplify division and conflict. If you are willing to learn how to truly co-create, you need to make the choice to let go of your personal agenda.

Your embodied Guru is your link in Hierarchy and will prepare you for candidature so that your Ascended Master Guru can accept you as a chela and give you the keys to return to the I AM. It might take long cycles of purification to find your way back to your spiritual mentor and a blessing to finally come back Home to Love-Truth. Relationships can be a gateway to Source!

Your Guru is your spiritual Father-Mother (representing Alpha and Omega), who will inspire you to let go of your unconscious addictions and attachments, leave your egoic entanglements, transcend the ancestral pull, balance your karma, honor your calling, step into divine service, and resolve your inner fragmentation so that you can reclaim your creative freedom and fulfill your authentic purpose-mission.

Get ready to be in the presence of the Guru and be quickened by the Light!

Be willing to dissolve all the layers of shame and fear so that your heart can lead you to the One. Not all chelas can endure the intensity of the sacred fire and withdraw from the path to find temporary relief. Take refuge in the Three Jewels as you are being purified to become a Christed Being. Spoilt followers won't make it! You need discipline, dedication and devotion to let go of the sense of self-importance that does not allow you to be converted.

This alchemical process will amplify your Light Body so that you can change your garment and recover your divine vitality, purity, vigor and flexibility to walk the path of chelaship (bodhisattva or disciple). Freedom requires the death of the false self so that your light can be resurrected through the virtues of sacrifice, service, surrender, and selflessness. Seduction (manipulation) needs to turn into magnetism so that life force energy is not abused. You need to dismiss the serpent (the impostor) so that it shall not pass through the Gates of your Temple. Only welcome integrity!

Chelaship is the process of training and probation that prepares an aspirant for initiation by a master of wisdom. It represents the choice to have a direct relationship with the one who can give you the keys of self-transcendence. To become a chela of the Ascended Masters you need to be initiated by the Hierarchy of Light and have cleared at least 25% of your karma. Only an embodied Guru, who serves as an outer representative of the Great White Brotherhood, can help you open the door to Liberation-Enlightenment, because they are a reflection of your own inner Guru, your I AM Presence. In general, we tend to create outside what we desire to integrate within. We need a mirror of possibility! Ultimately, we are all One and in service to the One. The Guru-chela relationship will help you restore the thread of contact with the luminous realm and the Aquarian Mystery School Teachings!

No world Guru is perfect! Why, then, trust and surrender to their guidance? The gift of the Guru is that he/she is not afraid of the shadow or the infinite expansion of the light and can take you there (where very few dare to go). That is the place of resolution and transcendence. To go higher, you also need to learn to go deeper!

This timeless Path of Initiation is meant to guide you through different Christic and Buddhic empowerments until you can embrace your own conversion. You can progress on your path of liberation-enlightenment at an accelerated pace and get ready to fulfill your earthly mission, always respecting your karmic and dharmic opportunities. To enter the path is to be willing to balance your karma!

Both the chela and the Guru-Mentor need to meet certain requirements to make progress. These are not human conditions, but the divine parameters that you need to respect to cultivate energy for self-transcendence.

The chela should be focused on their spiritual development, keep their vows, and be willing to take incremental steps towards the I AM. They should declare their sufficiency in the Guru -which means taking refuge in a liberated being who can help them disconnect from the pleasure cult to integrate their inner Christ. ''Without obedience to the Guru, the chela has no right to the teachings of the Guru''.[1]

The Guru-Teacher should be a great transmitter of the Dharma, the universal body of wisdom. He/She should share the teachings in an engaging way that gets everyOne involved. It is not their responsibility to make them entertaining, but they should not be tedious or boring either. The Guru serves the continuity of the Word and Works and needs to reach the soul!

[1] Prophet, Elizabeth Clare. ''The Opening of the Seventh Seal: Sanat Kumara on The Path of the Ruby Ray'', 2001, p. 35.

Also, there should be no secrecy in this sacred relationship. Both need to be visible and available instead of hiding or running away from the intensity of their exchange. Both the Guru and the chela create a spiral of ascension that inspires them to transcend the karmic pull to rise above the illusion of suffering.

As you read the I AM transmissions that we will share in this eBook, you will discover more keys to walk the path of sacred partnership, the fastest way to find/experience God! You can start by chanting this mantra:

"WE GET TOGETHER TO SERVE THE LIGHT."

The Age of Aquarius is a cycle of harvesting. The chelas that are ready to return to the I AM are being called to empty their human baggage and activate their divine codes to be able to experience permanent freedom. To fulfill your highest vision you require the Three Jewels -the Guru/mentor, the divine curriculum, and the community of devotees- since they represent the technology that you need to internalize your bodhisattva vow.

Be willing to deepen your journey of self-discovery, even if it seems impossible to realize your true nature. As you overcome the egoic inertia, you will start attracting the right allies and resources!

The Aquarian Call represents the magnetic movement towards the heart of the Guru so that you can re-enter the mystery school that you might have left during the times of Atlantis and Lemuria. Only the authentic Guru and the true chelas can open the gate of the mystery school.
